Substance abuse treatment

Psychological evaluation

Anger management counseling

Parenting classes

Other: _____

Other: _____

j. Other: _____

5. Designation of Primary Parent

For the purpose of all other state and federal statutes which require a designation or determination of parenting, the Mother Father shall be designated the primary parent. However, this designation shall not affect either parent's rights and responsibilities under this parenting plan.

6. Transportation Arrangements (Choose All That Apply):

Transportation arrangements for the child(ren) between parents shall be as follows:

Unless both parents agree upon a different meeting place, the exchange of the child(ren) shall be at: _____

Transportation costs shall be distributed as follows:

If the Mother Father is more than _____ minutes late to pick the child(ren) up for a visit, that visit shall be canceled.

7. Telephone Contact (Choose One):

with the child(ren) at reasonable times.

or

- While the child(ren) reside with one parent, the other parent shall be permitted to speak with the child(ren) at the following times only: _____

_____.

8. Co-Parenting Guidelines (Choose All That Apply):

- Each parent shall promote a healthy, beneficial relationship between the child(ren) and the other parent and shall not demean or speak out negatively in any manner that would damage the relationship between either parent and the child(ren).
- Each parent shall notify the other parent at least _____ days in advance when a particular parenting time shall not be exercised. The missed time shall not be substituted unless mutually agreed to by both parents. The parents are expected to fairly modify visitation when family necessities, illnesses, or other commitments reasonably so require. The requesting parent shall act in good faith and give as much notice as circumstances permit.
- Each parent shall supply the appropriate child(ren)'s clothing with them for their scheduled time with the other parent. These clothes are to be considered the child(ren)'s clothes and shall be returned with the child(ren).
- Each parent shall provide separate clothes for the child(ren) at their own residence, unless mutually agreed to by both parents. In the cold months of the year, both parents are required to have adequate boots, gloves, hats, and jackets for the child(ren), unless mutually agreed to by both parents.
- If a parent plans a special activity that requires clothing and/or equipment that would normally not be with the child(ren), it is that parent's responsibility to check to see if the child(ren) have such clothing and/or equipment with the other parent, to ask that the clothing and/or equipment travels with the child(ren), and to ensure that the clothing and/or equipment returns the same with the child(ren).
- Each parent shall be responsible for ensuring that the child(ren) attend regularly scheduled activities, including but not limited to sports and extra-curricular activities, while the child(ren) are with that parent.
- Neither parent shall permit the child(ren) to be subjected to:
(Choose All That Apply):
- Persons abusing alcohol or using illegal drugs within 24 hours of contact with the child(ren). This includes the abuse of alcohol or the use of illegal drugs by the parent.

or

a. Disputes between the parents shall be submitted to mediation, counseling, or arbitration by: _____

_____.

- b. The cost of this process shall be allocated between the parents as follows
(Choose One):
- Based on each parent's proportional share of income as determined from the child support worksheet.
 - As determined in the dispute resolution process.
 - Mother: _____ % , Father: _____ %.
- c. A parent will begin the dispute resolution process by notifying the other parent by written request sent by certified mail.
- d. In the dispute resolution process:
- (i) Preference shall be given to carrying out this parenting plan.
 - (ii) Unless an emergency exists, the parents shall use the designated process to resolve disputes relating to implementation of the plan, except those related to financial support.
 - (iii) A written record shall be prepared of any agreement or arbitration award reached in counseling or mediation, and a copy shall be provided to each parent.
 - (iv) If the court finds that a parent has used or frustrated the dispute resolution process without good reason, the court may award attorney's fees and financial sanctions to the other parent.
 - (v) The parents have the right of review from the dispute resolution process to the district court.

ATTACHMENT "A" CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

- a. The Mother Father shall pay $ _____ per month per child.
This amount:
 is in accordance with the Montana Child Support Guidelines.
 varies from the Montana Child Support Guidelines.
(Attach the calculations done according to the Montana Child Support Guidelines.)

- b. The first payment is due the _____ day of _____, 20____, with subsequent payments to be made on the _____ day of each month thereafter.

Payments should continue until such time as each child reaches the age of 18 years and has completed high school, or attained the age of 19 years, or is emancipated by court order, whichever shall first occur.

- c. Payments should be made to (Choose One):

The Child Support Enforcement Division.
The parties request do not request income withholding.

Missoula County Clerk of Court, 200 West Broadway, Missoula, MT 59802.

WARNING: If a parent is delinquent in payments, that parent's income may be subject to income withholding procedures under MCA Title 40, Chapter 5, without need for any further action by the Court. Support is delinquent when it is 8 days overdue.

- d. Whenever the case is receiving services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, support payments must be paid through the Department of Public Health and Human Services Child Support Enforcement Division as provided in M.C.A. § 40-5-909.

- e. This order is subject to review and modification by the Department of Public Health and Human Services upon the request of the Department or a party under M.C.A. §§ 40-5-271 through 40-5-273, when the Department is providing services for enforcement under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

- f. The obligations to provide financial child support, provide medical care for a child, and provide or comply with parenting arrangements shall be independent of each other, and the failure or inability to provide one or more shall not reduce any other obligation.

- g. Each party should promptly inform the Court of any changes in the following information:

- (i) Name, social security number, mailing address, residential address, telephone number, and driver's license number; and
- (ii) Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of current employers

WARNING: In any subsequent child support enforcement action, on sufficient showing of diligent efforts to locate the party, due process requirements for notice and service may be met by delivering written notice by regular mail to the last address of the party or the party's employer reported to the Court.

ATTACHMENT “B” MEDICAL SUPPORT

1. Existing Coverage

- The child(ren) are presently covered under the following insurance plan:
Carrier Name: _____
Policy No.: _____

The Mother Father shall continue to provide medical coverage through the plan as long as it is available at a reasonable cost, and as long as no other plan or individual insurance is available that will better serve the interests of the parties.

- The child(ren) are recipient(s) of medical assistance under Title XIX of the Federal Social Security Act (Medicaid).
- The child(ren) are not covered under an existing insurance plan.

2. Contingency Medical Support

If the minor child(ren) are either (i) covered by Medicaid, (ii) are not covered under an existing insurance plan, or (iii) if the existing coverage becomes no longer available, the following provisions shall apply:

- a. The Mother shall provide medical coverage through individual insurance or a health benefit plan for the child(ren), as long as it is available at reasonable cost, and as long as no other plan or individual insurance is available that will better serve the interests of the parties.
- b. The Father shall provide medical coverage through individual insurance or a health benefit plan for the child(ren), as long as it is available at reasonable cost, and as long as no other plan or individual insurance is available that will better serve the interests of the parties.
- c. If health benefit plans are available to both parties at a combined cost that is reasonable or cost-beneficial and with benefits that are complementary or compatible as primary and secondary coverage, both parties shall provide coverage for the child(ren).
- d. Coverage is presumed to be available at reasonable cost if the cost of premiums does not exceed 25 percent of the obligated party's total child support obligation when calculated under the child support guidelines without credit for the medical support obligation.

- e. If circumstances change and a party believes that corresponding changes in cost are not reasonable or cost-beneficial, the party may move to petition any appropriate tribunal for relief.

3. Duties of the Parties

- a. The Mother shall be responsible for ____% and the Father shall be responsible for ____% of all medical expenses of the minor child(ren), including the costs of the premium for coverage, all co-payments and deductibles required for coverage, and any uncovered medical expenses.
- b. Each party shall promptly execute and deliver to the insurance provider all forms necessary to ensure the child(ren)'s continuous participation in insurance coverage. Each party shall timely submit claims for processing, verification, and payment. Each party shall provide the other party with identification cards or other methods for access to coverage.
- c. If a party receives a reimbursement but did not pay the underlying bill, that party shall promptly pay over the proceeds to the proper party.
- d. If the party responsible for providing medical insurance coverage for the child(ren) allows such coverage to lapse without securing a comparable replacement, that party shall be liable for all the child(ren)'s medical expenses and shall indemnify the other party, the Department of Public Health and Human Services, or any third-party custodian for the cost of obtaining medical coverage and medical expenses.
- e. Any liability for unpaid medical costs and expenses may be entered as a judgment for unpaid support against the obligated party. A party may apply to the Court for expedited enforcement procedures.
- f. If an obligated party fails to pay a required premium, the other parent, the Department of Public Health and Human Services, or the custodian may advance the cost of premiums and keep benefits continually in force for the child. The advance should be entered as a judgment for unpaid child support in favor of the advancing party and against the obligated parent.
- g. The obligation to provide medical coverage for the child(ren) ceases only when the child support obligation ceases.
- h. The costs of providing individual insurance or a health benefit plan may not be used as a direct offset to the child support obligation. However, as provided by the child support guidelines, the costs may be considered in making or modifying a child support order.

- i. Each party shall promptly inform the Court of any changes in the following information:
 - (i) If the child(ren) are covered by a health or medical insurance plan, the name of the plan, the policy identification number, and the name(s) of the person(s) covered;
 - (ii) If the child(ren) are not covered by a health or medical insurance plan, whether health insurance coverage for the child(ren) is available through the party's employer or other group, and if so, whether the employer or other group pays any portion of the coverage premium.
- j. A civil penalty not to exceed $25 per day may be imposed for an intentional violation of this medical support order or the provisions of M.C.A Title 40, Chapter 5, Part 8 or the regulations promulgated under that Part.
- k. If medical insurance is available for minor children through a parent's employer, this Order will allow automatic enrollment without any need for further court order.

WARNING: The obligations to provide medical care, provide financial child support, and provide or comply with visitation and custody arrangements are independent of each other, and the failure or inability to provide one or more does not reduce any other obligation.

4. Other Provisions: _____
